Black History Month

FEBRUARY

Black History Facts You May Not Know...

Before there was Rosa Parks, there was Claudette Colvin.

Most people think of Rosa Parks as the first person to refuse to give up her seat on a bus in Montgomery, Alabama. There were actually several women who came before her, one of whom was Claudette Colvin. At the time, the NAACP and other Black organizations felt Rosa Parks made a better icon for the movement than a teenager.

When the bus driver ordered Claudette to get up, she refused: "It felt like Sojourner Truth was on one side pushing me down, and Harriet Tubman was on the other side of me pushing me down. I couldn't get up."
