About our Speaker

Judge Glenda A. Hatchett

A graduate of Mt. Holyoke College and Emory University School of Law, where she was an Earl Warren Scholar, Hatchett completed a prestigious federal clerkship in the United States District Court, Northern District of Georgia. She then spent nearly 10 years at Delta Air Lines, where she was the airline's highest-ranking woman of color worldwide. As Senior Attorney, she represented Delta Air Lines in labor/personnel and antitrust litigation and commercial acquisitions. As Public Relations Manager, she supervised global crisis management and handled media relations for 50 U.S. cities as well as all of Europe and Asia.

Hatchett left Delta Air Lines to accept an appointment as Chief Presiding Judge of the Fulton County (Atlanta, Georgia) Juvenile Court—becoming the first African-American Chief Presiding Judge of a state court in Georgia and head of one of the largest juvenile court systems in the country. She is a member of both the Georgia Bar and the Bar of the District of Columbia.

Hatchett has served on the Boards of three Fortune 500 companies—HCA, The Gap Inc. and ServiceMaster Company. While on the Board of Directors of HCA, she was a member of the five-person special board committee that negotiated HCA's $32.7 billion leveraged buyout paving the way for the nation's largest for-profit hospital chain to go private. At the time, the buyout was the largest leveraged buyout in US corporate history.

Hatchett was a member of the National Football League's Atlanta Falcons' Board of Advisors and served as a consultant to the National Basketball Association on pressing legal and social issues. She has presented leadership sessions for various companies. Additionally, she frequently lectures throughout the country and has keynoted several national conferences.

Hatchett has consistently shown her commitment to community development through her service on various nonprofit boards. Presently, she serves as the national spokesperson for CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates), a non-profit volunteer organization that trains volunteers to represent abused and neglected children and is the recipient of their President's Award. Hatchett is the recipient of numerous awards including the Roscoe Pound Award for outstanding work in Criminal Justice, NAACP's Thurgood Marshall Award and recognition as one of the "100 Best and Brightest Women in Corporate America" by Ebony magazine.

Currently, Hatchett is the proud founder of The Hatchett Firm, P.C. located in Atlanta, GA. The firm specializes in risk and crisis management and catastrophic police misconduct cases. Similar to her time on the bench, Hatchett vows to pursue justice for those who have experienced significant loss from the carelessness of others and the families of victims of senseless violence at the hands of law enforcement.

Hatchett presided over the two-time Emmy nominated nationally syndicated show, Judge Hatchett, for 8 seasons. In 2016, she has returned to TV in her new television court series, The Verdict. She is also the author of the National Best Sellers, Say What You Mean and Mean What You Say and Dare to Take Charge.

With over 30 years of experience as a judge, corporate lawyer, and board member of corporate and nonprofit organizations, Hatchett has established a legacy of excellence.
