Tribute to Antioch's Added Members

This morning, our Antioch Church Family is filled with joy as we acknowledge the treasures God has blessed us with by guiding each of you to join our fellowship.

The Spirit of our Fellowship is engrained in the love and in the practices of Jesus Christ. All of us at Antioch consider it a rich blessing that you—our added members—have chosen this glory train that we call Antioch to be your desired mode of transportation for your journey to heaven.

The conductor of the glory train is the Holy Spirit. He sets the schedule, and our engineer, our illustrious pastor, the Reverend Cameron M. Alexander, and our assistant engineer, our Co-Pastor, the Reverend Kenneth L. Alexander, keep the Antioch North Glory Train operating smoothly. They deliver messages from the conductor and enlist other personnel, including our deacons and trustees, to serve the passengers. We are overjoyed that you—our added members—have boarded this glory train.

Your ticket to ride this Antioch North Glory Train is free to you, but it was purchased at a tremendous cost. Your eternal salvation ticket was purchased by the blood of Jesus Christ. Thanks be to God, your ticket comes with two extremely valuable amenities: GRACE and MERCY!

As added members, you will be pleased to know that our fellowship was organized in 1877, and this body of believers has had a long and lasting legacy of charitable Christian Service. For 139 years, this fellowship has been about the business of saving souls and serving God's people... especially those who have been left on the side of the tracks among the least, the less, and the lost.

You have not boarded the Antioch North Glory Train by accident. God has brought you here to add your gifts, skill sets, and talents to increase our service to others. We have a place waiting just for you. Find a ministry, auxiliary, or service entity within our fellowship where you will be comfortable rendering Christian Service. It is our aspiration to have our Antioch North Glory Train filled with willing and excited workers for Jesus Christ. Your engaged and active participation will strengthen your bond with Christ and will add an unparalleled dimension and depth to your spiritual journey.

Again, we thank each of our added members for coming to Antioch, accepting our pastor's invitation to discipleship, and having a desire to journey to heaven from this sacred place that we call Antioch Baptist Church North. We are delighted that you are coming along for the ride. You will enjoy the journey, and you will find great joy in your heavenly destination.
