THE LITANY OF PRAISE

MINISTER: Let us stand for our Litany of Praise

MINISTER: We are...

CONGREGATION: Bible-based, Christ-centered, Holy Spirit-led, and Mission-bound

MINISTER: We stand on...

CONGREGATION: The four pillars, Fellowship, Evangelism, Doctrine, and Stewardship

MINISTER: So, let us...

ALL: Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands. Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing. Know ye that the LORD he is GOD: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name. For the LORD IS good; HIS mercy is everlasting; and HIS truth endureth to ALL generations.

Psalm 100

The DOXOLOGY.....*Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.*

The Offertory Prayer

Dear Lord, we pray this morning, that you will instill within our hearts, the understanding that giving requires Love, Obedience, and Commitment. Help us, Lord Jesus, to give back as generously as we have received. In Jesus Name, we pray. Amen!

FACTS ABOUT OUR GUEST PREACHER
DR. ROBERT MICHAEL FRANKLIN, JR.

Antioch is excited to welcome Dr. Robert Michael Franklin, Jr., a Visiting Scholar in Residence at Stanford University's Martin Luther King, Jr. Research and Education Institute, as our special guest preacher. Dr. Franklin is also the president emeritus of Morehouse College, the nation's largest private, four-year liberal arts college for men, where he served as the tenth president from 2007 to 2012.

Dr. Franklin was the Presidential Distinguished Professor of Social Ethics at Emory University (2004-2007), where he provided leadership for a university-wide initiative titled "Confronting the Human Condition and the Human Experience" and was a senior fellow at the Center for the Study of Law and Religion at the law school. He provides commentary for the National Public Radio (NPR) program, "All Things Considered," and weekly commentary for Atlanta Interfaith Broadcasting Television.

Dr. Franklin graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Morehouse in 1975 with a degree in political science and religion. He earned the master of divinity degree in Christian social ethics and pastoral care in 1978 at the Harvard Divinity School, where he also served as assistant director of Ministry Education. Ordained in the Church of God in Christ in 1975, his other pastoral positions included assistant pastor at St. Paul Church of God in Christ and Protestant chaplain at St. Bernard Hospital, both in Chicago.

Dr. Franklin continued his education at the University of Chicago, earning a doctorate in ethics and society, and religion and the social sciences in 1985. He is also the recipient of honorary degrees from Bethune Cookman University, Bates College, and Swarthmore College.

An insightful educator, Dr. Franklin has served on the faculties of the University of Chicago, Harvard Divinity School, Colgate-Rochester Divinity School and at Emory University's Candler School of Theology, where he gained a national reputation as director of Black Church Studies.

In 1997, Dr. Franklin assumed the presidency of the Interdenominational Theological Center (ITC), the graduate theological seminary of the Atlanta University Center consortium, and served until 2002.

Dr. Franklin is the author of three books: Crisis in the Village: Restoring Hope in African American Communities (2007); Another Day's Journey: Black Churches Confronting the American Crisis (1997); and Liberating Visions: Human Fulfillment and Social Justice in African American Thought (1990).

A seasoned traveler, Dr. Franklin has studied seven languages and visited Africa, Asia, South America, Europe, the Middle East, and the Caribbean. He is the recipient of a Ford Foundation grant to examine religion in public life in Asia and produced NPR commentaries based on this research.

Dr. Franklin is married to Dr. Cheryl Goffney Franklin, an OB-GYN physician, and is the father of three children: Imani R. Franklin; Robert M. Franklin III and Julian M. DeShazier.

LITANY

PASTOR: My Brothers and Sisters: The Church, which is the body of Christ, is composed of many members with diverse spiritual gifts and varying needs for their spiritual growth and well being. You have been selected by the grace of God and by the people of this church to the office you now hold. As you prepare to assume leadership roles associated with the office you hold, I admonish you to know that each office is a sacred trust. It carries unique responsibilities and has the dignity of the Christian Church behind it.

If it is your sincere desire as a leader of this Church to continue and to promote the values, traditions, and practices of this Church, please affirm your promise.

OFFICERS: As individuals and as a leadership body we pledge our support to the values, traditions and practices of this Missionary Church that we love so dearly, the Lord being our helper.

CONGREGATION: As members of Antioch Baptist Church North, we pledge our support, our confidence and our prayers to help our leaders in doing the work of the Church. Amen.

HYMN.....“A Charge To Keep I Have”.....Dea. Clarence Hicks
